

1 ABUSES

Judged, unexpected and sudden another muddied story massacred for no reason left to die as if nothing happened weight goes down to inhuman levels injury, torture and no answers infamous assault and negligence to hide everything

And laughs over his suffering I can't tolerate this I can't accept this

NO!

2 TOMORROW AT 8

Tired of waiting for your message knowing when my calvary will start to earn a fucking salary I break my back until evening I have to sweat for a piece of bread instead you have to call me

Coward, you're never satisfied you like watching people trudging you like watching people exhausting you're always under tension because of the master I am always under tension because of an asshole meanwhile I'm waiting for the suspicious message

REST FOR TOMORROW!

5 A SUPERIOR SPECIES

Believed to be infallible believed to be the best but what I realized is that we're just the worst life

yes, you know, but the others are stupid
yes, you know, but they're so useless go on, continue continue to shout

you are the best being!
the best being!
you are the one who decides who borns
who lives
who dies!

Continuously doped of your infinite immoral ego everything is due for you superior earthling but when you'll see that someone will come and you'll not want to fall into clutches of these slaughterers then maybe you'll implore those who you considered worse

3 SAME SHIT (Scheißegal)!

I learned it by myself is a natural tendency I learned to hate those who wants to crush us in this dirty game without moral I feel hate towards you!
hate towards you!
Now just try to tell me that you are responsible a big the most respected and you don't give a fuck but after all we are what scares you the most we'll continue to scream what hurts you the most

STATE - NATION - CAPITAL SAME SHIT
SCHEIßEGAL

Free thought and alive without barriers
just try to stop us we go beyond the limits as untouchable wind we overcome obstacles you'd like to see us blocked stopped - exhausted you'd like to see us falling in your infamous life in your sea of shit identitary insanities or master-markets

you are the best being!
who borns
who lives
who dies!

6 SERENE POISON

The sky spits poison
I'm not much serene
breathing the poison unarmed
from the sky

comes poison
I'm not much serene

The sky spits poison
I'm not much serene

a jungle getting industrial odd-even rationing of my breathe
The sky spits poison
I'm not much serene

4 EXHAUSTING SILENCE

ignore everything but being present trying to plug the gaps of silence that come unexpectedly
darkness can't find the light the gap continues to live inside us and you realize that it would take the nothingness to destroy it

An ecstasy of nothing quick trip in a slow path
fucking silence incessant darkness

DEF.
astatic: astatic balance of a solid, that maintains its independence, regardless of the external forces acting on it.

A/STATICO - TOMORROW VOTE SHIT

7 VOTE I

Another cycle gone and here are the posters ready to scream
how much I hate you

All your smiling faces promising false changes I do not delegate, I manage myself the future is mine, vote I Reforms of reforms, decrees on decrees are repeated stories that make us restless for that reason I've chosen, vote I

Taxes on taxes you empty my pockets

A new cycle starts, fuck posters what I'm thinking is to see you all hanging nothing has changed as suspected and by the book pigs fall and here are some new ready to take their places the game is repeated but my position remains the same

Vote I, it's my right Vote I, I organize Vote I, is what I think Vote I, you can be sure!
